

PART ONE: Application for determination

Section 178, Building Act 2004

Part One is equivalent to Form 14 in the Building (Forms) Regulations 2004

Before you apply, please check:

- You are legally able to do so – you must be a ‘party’ to the determination as defined in section 176 of the Act (refer to section D for who can be a party)
- The Ministry can determine your particular dispute – determinations can only consider whether building work complies with the Building Code, or whether a building consent authority or territorial authority (a council) made the correct decisions in a number of specified circumstances; eg about issuing a building consent or code compliance certificate (refer to section G for what the Ministry can determine).
- You have the correct form – This form relates to all other matters that can be determined, but not powers exercised during an emergency or designation under section 133BC (refer to section G for what matters this form is for). Complete application Form 14A for determinations that can consider decisions relating to building affected by emergency and when a designation under section 133BC is in place.

The Ministry’s website at:

www.building.govt.nz/resolving-problems/ has more information on determinations and links to other options for resolving your dispute. You can also contact the Determinations team at determinations@mbie.govt.nz or 0800 242 243 for more help.

Attachments may include the following (not all of these will be available or relevant to your determination): a submission setting out your views and the background to the dispute; related correspondence; plans, specifications and design calculations; reports and photographs.

If your application relates to a particular decision by an authority, eg to issue a notice to fix, remember to include a copy of this notice and related correspondence.

Your information should be clearly described below, labelled and indexed, where possible. It is also useful if you include a summary of the key points with reference to the supporting documents. If this information is easily understood and complete it helps us assess and process your application.

The following documents are attached to/submitted with this application:

- a submission setting out my view on the matter
- a summary of key events/background to the dispute
- correspondence relating to the building work or the dispute
- other information that is relevant to support this application: [specify, for example: plans, specifications, photographs or other documents. If you don't have enough room please put your description in a separate document and refer to that document here]
